

Inflation Swap Clearing

Generate Significant Margin Offsets and Netting Efficiencies

LCH The Markets' Partner

SwapClear

EXPERIENCE THE SAVINGS

As the first CCP to introduce inflation swap clearing, LCH continues to innovate and expand its offering — leading the way to even greater efficiencies and capital optimisation. By providing significant margin offsets against cleared interest rate swaps, we're now the standard in inflation products for both the interbank and the buy-side markets.

The benefits of clearing inflation products are more compelling than ever, especially since the introduction of uncleared margin rules in September 2016.

By clearing this highly capital-intensive, long-dated product, you unlock potential opportunities for increased margin efficiencies and trade compression.

Blended Rate Compression

Blended rate compression for ZC Inflation Swaps allows participants to realise greater operational and capital efficiencies. Here's how it works: LCH enables institutions to compress any trade with different interest rates but the same remaining cash-flow dates, expanding the number of eligible trades and the opportunity for portfolio efficiency.

Standard Coupon Inflation Swaps

Clearing Standard Coupon Inflation Swaps allows you to balance your ZC Inflation Swap risk exposure at LCH and achieve margin efficiencies. Standard Coupon Inflation Swaps comprise an inflation-linked leg vs fixed leg, pay out regular coupons on both sides, and support the clearing of both Par/Par and Proceeds Asset Swap structures. Send us the ISIN of your underlying inflation-linked bond, and we will derive the coupon schedule for the inflation leg to match the coupon schedule of your bond.
