LCH.Clearnet SA Business Continuity: Global Disaster recovery test on Saturday 13 September 2014.

Dear Members,

LCH.Clearnet SA is pleased to announce that its annual disaster recovery test will be held on Saturday 13 September 2014.

The objective of this test is to validate the effectiveness of LCH.Clearnet SA Business Continuity Management and demonstrate its ability to recover all its critical Clearing activities by switching over from the primary Data Center (DC) to the secondary DC with no negative effects (no data loss) and within the targeted time frame of 2 hours. Completeness of this test includes involvement of Clearing members and other market participants.

Members and ISVs are strongly advised to take part in the test and are asked to register before 27 August 2014.

Main features:

- Markets: Cash Equities & Derivatives
- Segments: All
- Environment: Production
- Scenario: LCH.Clearnet SA will simulate a crash on the primary Data Center after the opening of the real time session.
- Business Date: Cleared Trades will be based on business activity from Friday 12 September 2014
- Communication to Members: During the test, members will be informed on the progress made on a regular basis.

Participants' role:

- Participation of member during the crash simulation from approximately 10:00AM to 4:00PM CET.
- Trade reception and positions management (before the crash and after the recovery).
