Ms. Melissa Jurgens
Commodity Futures Trading Commission
1155 21st Street NW
Three Lafayette Centre
Washington DC 20581

Dear Ms. Jurgens:

Pursuant to CFTC regulation §40.6(a), LCH.Clearnet SA (“LCH.Clearnet”), a derivatives clearing organization registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the “CFTC”), is submitting for self-certification a change in the remuneration of all its default funds including that of CDS. This change was approved by the LCH.Clearnet LMC (Local Management Committee) on the 5th of May.

Part I: Explanation and Analysis

The current market conditions require LCH.Clearnet to modify the remuneration of its default fund. The interest rate paid will move for Euro cash from EONIA flat to EONIA minus 10 bps. This change will be applicable on balances from June 1st.

The other interest rates & fees applied on cash & non cash collateral will remain unchanged.

Part II: Description of Rule Changes

No Rules will be modified as a result of the entry into force the new fee grid.

PAYMENT AGENT REPORT

An added value service for the paying agent has been created; two reports are available:

- First report: Net payment position document; this consolidated report provides, for a given paying agent:
  - The entire list of its clients' payments,
  - The payment limits (for each client),
  - And the difference between the payments and the limits if the latter have been exceeded.
- Second report: Cash document of exceeded payment limits; this specific report focuses, for a given paying agent, on all clients that exceed their payment limit.

The subscription to this optional added value service is charged €530 per year for the two reports (it is not possible to subscribe to only one report).
