LCH Limited Self Certification: Rule Changes Related to the Clearing House Prescribed Language and the obligations of LCH to each Clearing Member.

Dear Mr Kirkpatrick

Pursuant to CFTC regulation §40.6(a), LCH Limited ("LCH"), a derivatives clearing organization registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the “CFTC”), is submitting for self-certification changes to its rules regarding the Clearing House Prescribed Language, related to client clearing, and the obligations of LCH to each Clearing Member.

Part I: Explanation and Analysis

The General Regulations (Regulation 11(f)(i)) provide that a “Clearing Member shall, before providing the relevant Client Clearing Services to any client, ensure that it has entered into a Clearing Agreement with that client which gives the Clearing House enforceable rights against that client in terms of the Clearing House Prescribed Language”. The purpose of the Clearing House Prescribed Language is to seek to protect LCH from claims brought against LCH by clients of LCH Clearing Members.

LCH proposes to remove the existing section titled “Clearing House Prescribed Language” in Schedule 2 of Procedures Section 4 ("Margin and Collateral") and replace it with an amended version in a new Schedule 1 of the Procedures Section 1 ("Clearing Member, non-Member Market Participant and Dealer Status"). The amended version simplifies the language on the respective obligations of clients and their Clearing Members to LCH. These rule changes do not apply to Clearing Members of LCH which are Futures Commission Members (“FCMs”) and clients of FCMs.

In addition, LCH proposes to make a clarification change in the General Regulations and the FCM Regulations noting that the benefit of the performance by LCH of its obligations under the LCH Rulebook is conferred upon Clearing Members only.

The rule changes will go live on, or after, 12 April 2018.
Part II: Description of Rule Changes

Schedule 2 of the Procedures Section 4 titled “Clearing House Prescribed Language” has been removed and replaced with a new Schedule 1 of the Procedures Section 1. The new section comprises of two clauses. The first clause establishes that the client clearing services provided by LCH to clients of LCH Clearing Members are subject to the LCH Rulebook and clients shall not be in breach of the relevant provisions; and sets out the clients’ responsibilities and obligations to LCH and LCH’s rights over the clients, including the following:

a) in the event that their Clearing Member defaults, in the absence of a nomination of a Back-up Clearing Member, LCH would not port the clients positions and, instead, would implement the remainder of its default management process under the Default Rules in relation to such clients’ Contracts;
b) clients must agree that they have read and understood the Client Clearing End-User Notice, provided by LCH; and
c) clients must obtain their own independent advice, and undertake their own due diligence in respect to the client services offered by LCH.

The second clause requires a Clearing Member and their clients to acknowledge and agree that, subject to and in accordance with the UK Third Parties Act 1999, a person who is not party to the relevant client clearing agreement has no rights over it, except that LCH may enforce any term of the relevant client clearing agreement. The clause also notes that the rights of the Clearing Member and their clients to rescind/ vary the client clearing agreement are not subject to the consent of any other person.

The above changes only apply to non-FCMs Clearing Members and their clients.

In addition, the General Regulations now include a new definition of ”Third Parties Act” and paragraph g) of Regulation 52 has been removed as it is redundant.

Regulation 2 of the General Regulation and the FCM Regulations, respectively, cover the obligations of the Clearing House to each Clearing Member. Paragraph c) of this Regulation clarifies that the benefit of the performance by LCH of its obligations under the LCH Rulebook is conferred upon Clearing Members only; it also notes that a person who is not a party to the LCH Rulebook (where the parties to the Rulebook are the Clearing House and each Member) has no right to enforce any of its terms, except as expressly provided in the rules.

The texts of the changes are attached hereto as:

i. Appendix I, FCM Regulations
ii. Appendix II, General Regulations
iii. Appendix III, Procedures Section 1
iv. Appendix IV, Procedures Section 4
Part III: Core Principle Compliance

LCH has reviewed the changes against the requirements of the Core Principles and finds that they will continue to comply with all the requirements and standards therein.

Part IV: Public Information

LCH has posted a notice of pending certification with the CFTC and a copy of the submission on LCH’s website at:

http://www.lch.com/rules-regulations/proposed-rules-changes

Part V: Opposing Views

There were no opposing views expressed to LCH by governing board or committee members, members of LCH or market participants that were not incorporated into the rule.

Certification

LCH hereby certifies to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Commission regulation § 40.6, that attached rule submission complies with the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended, and the regulations promulgated there under.
