AtomX Lot 2: Go-Live of 25 July launch strategy

Dear Clearing Members,

Following the AtomX (Euronext reporting service for Derivatives*) Lot 2 communication sent on 15 June 2016 (Click here), LCH SA is pleased to confirm the AtomX lot 2 Go-Live date of 25 July 2016 and to provide with the launch strategy details.

Production implementation will take place as follows:

- Friday 22 July 2016: The AtomX Lot 2 changes will be activated on LCH SA production platforms after Friday End Of Day (EOD) process completion. This activation will neither affect the initial and intraday margin calculations nor the Clearing Member reports issued on Friday 22 July 2016. All files - including the SPAN® parameters and position files - will be made available as per usual process.
- Monday 25 July 2016: Intraday initial margin calculations cycles will incorporate the AtomX Lot 2 changes.
- Tuesday 26 July 2016: Margins and Positions cycles will operate as per usual processes including AtomX Lot 2 changes.

Dedicated support on Saturday 23 July 2016:

If necessary, Monep and Matif SPAN® parameters files which will be used for Monday first Intra Day Margin Call can be made available via E-mail on Saturday 23 July 2016 from 11:00 am CET for Clearing Members who would have requested for it.

If required, we kindly invite Clearing Members to provide contact details for people being present on this day by sending an e-mail to juan-jose.lizana@lch.com.

Should you have any questions or require a specific support, please, do not hesitate to liaise with your Delivery and/or Account Managers.
